Privacy Policy

Study in the USA, Inc. ("StudyUSA," "us," "we," or "our") have updated our Privacy Policy to help you (the company who uses this service or accesses available information) understand what our information practices are with respect to the collection and use of the information we collect from you. We respect your privacy and security, and we are committed to fair practices that protect the information you share with us.

What Information We Collect

When a company agrees to allow us to do a cross-match, we will need students' first and last names along with their email addresses.

How We Use the Information

We are able to capture students who created an account with StudyUSA.com and then sent an inquiry directly to you on your website, bypassing the Study in the USA lead form on your profile. They may have heard about you from our newsletter or social media and may not have actually submitted an inquiry to you on our inquiry form.

Confidentiality & Security of Personally Identifiable Information

We consider the confidentiality and security of your information to be of the utmost importance. We only use the information for the express purpose it was collected and then the information is deleted and destroyed. It is not stored in our databases, used for marketing purposes, or shared in any form.
